Special Points of Interest

- Tributaries of Laurel - dropping directly into place names are essential to successful outings in Jocassee
- More than 75 inches of precipitation
- Botanical communities
- Carolina parakeet, the only parrot
- Over 35,000 acres of protected forestland associated with South Carolina
- Important Bird Area by the Audubon Society and documented by dedicated scientists only in recent decades.
- Unique variety of habitats that harbor different species of birds
- Airplane construction
- The Blue Ridge Parkway
- Mountain and stream courses
- Hiking
- Fishing
- Botanical areas
- Jocassee Gorges
- Buzzard's Roost
- Botany and the saddle back bacon
- A trip for the canoe enthusiast
- Echo Canyon
- French Broad River
- Beech Mountain
-現的 image caption

Botanical areas

Jocassee Gorges offers some of the finest opportunities to learn about the flora and fauna of the Southern Appalachian. It is a paradise for those interested in botany and wildflower identification. Some species are found nowhere else in the United States. This is an ideal place for the naturalist who wishes to see a variety of species in a short period of time. The diverse and unique ecosystem of Jocassee Gorges is home to many different species of plants. The rich soil and mild climate provide an excellent environment for a variety of different species to thrive. The area is home to over 400 different species of plants, many of which are found nowhere else in the world. This is a great place to learn about the world of botany and to see some of the most beautiful flowers in the world.

Fishing

Jocassee Gorges offers some of the finest fishing opportunities in the United States. The lake is stocked with more than 50,000 trout each year and is home to over 100 different species of fish. The lake is deep and clear, providing excellent visibility for anglers. The fishing is excellent throughout the year, with the best action occurring in the spring and fall. The lake is also home to many different species of birds, which provide excellent opportunities for birdwatching.

Bird-Watching

The Southern Appalachian region is home to some of the finest birdwatching opportunities in the United States. The area is home to over 400 different species of birds, many of which are found nowhere else in the world. The lake is deep and clear, providing excellent visibility for anglers. The fishing is excellent throughout the year, with the best action occurring in the spring and fall. The lake is also home to many different species of birds, which provide excellent opportunities for birdwatching.

Educational Opportunities at Jocassee Gorges

Jocassee Gorges offers a number of opportunities for educational programs and field trips. The lake is deep and clear, providing excellent visibility for anglers. The fishing is excellent throughout the year, with the best action occurring in the spring and fall. The lake is also home to many different species of birds, which provide excellent opportunities for birdwatching.

Camper opportunities

Jocassee offers several different types of camping opportunities. The lake is deep and clear, providing excellent visibility for anglers. The fishing is excellent throughout the year, with the best action occurring in the spring and fall. The lake is also home to many different species of birds, which provide excellent opportunities for birdwatching.

Map and Driving Directions

Jocassee Gorges is easily accessible via a number of highways. The lake is deep and clear, providing excellent visibility for anglers. The fishing is excellent throughout the year, with the best action occurring in the spring and fall. The lake is also home to many different species of birds, which provide excellent opportunities for birdwatching.

Driving Directions

- Begin driving your way at the Jocassee Gorges parking lot will be on the right. Follow the signs to the lake and turn right at the hatchery entrance.
- From the Jocassee Gorges Visitor Center, take 17 Southbound near the Jocassee Gorges Hatchery. Bear left onto SC 11 near just before SC 11, then take a right onto SC 11 near just before SC 11.

- Bear left onto SC 11 near just before SC 11.
- From NC 281, go 0.3 miles north to the intersection of SC 11 near just before SC 11. Turn right onto SC 11 near just before SC 11.
- From NC 281, go 0.3 miles north to the intersection of SC 11 near just before SC 11. Turn right onto SC 11 near just before SC 11.
- From NC 281, go 0.3 miles north to the intersection of SC 11 near just before SC 11. Turn right onto SC 11 near just before SC 11.